

Rev. Rhome van Dyck
Executive Director
SacraScript Ministries

Rhyme was born in Vancouver, British Columbia, and grew up in various places across Canada. His passion is for the worldwide Church and teaching the message of God's Word from its original context. He is currently the Executive Director of SacraScript Ministries. Based in Plano, Texas, SacraScript finds its purpose in addressing the biblical needs of the Church by equipping the Body of Christ with excellent Bible studies that convert content into meaning.

Along with a diploma in Biblical Studies from Columbia Bible College, Rhyme holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in History with an emphasis on the Reformation from Simon Fraser University and a Th.M. in Historical Theology from Dallas Theological Seminary. He has served as a pastor for seven years and was ordained at Stonebriar Community Church in Frisco, Texas.

He has traveled extensively around the world teaching and training pastors often in areas of persecution and continues a busy teaching schedule both at home and abroad. He loves to help people understand how the entire story of Scripture reveals God's redemptive plan through Christ.

He is married to Vanessa, a former college professor and fellow Dallas Seminary graduate. They have two daughters: Kaleah and Adrielle. Rhyme loves the Lord, sports, music, history and the great outdoors. He has a sense of adventure and likes water skiing and snow skiing, and being outdoors. In 2007 on a missions trip to Africa, he climbed Mount Kilimanjaro. He loves spending time with his wife and daughters.

Visit www.SacraScript.org to learn more.

Dr. Ramesh P. Richard
Professor of Global Theological Engagement and Pastoral Ministries
Dallas Theological Seminary

BCom, Madras Christian College, 1973; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1979; ThD, 1982; PhD, University of Delhi, 1991.

In addition to more than thirty years of faculty service, Dr. Richard is founder and president of Ramesh Richard Evangelism and Church Health (RREACH), a global proclamation ministry that seeks to evangelize leaders and strengthen pastors primarily of Asia, Africa, and Latin America. He has ministered in over 100 countries, speaking to wide-ranging audiences, from pastors in rural areas to heads of state. In partnership with DTS, RREACH launched the Global Proclamation Academy to equip influential young pastors from all over the world. Dr. Richard is also the founder of Trainers of Pastors International Coalition (TOPIC) and the general convener of the 2016 Global Proclamation Congress for Pastoral Trainers. He and his wife, Bonnie, have three grown children and two grandchildren.

Visit www.RREACH.org to learn more.

Dr. Ronald B. Allen
Senior Professor of Bible Exposition
Dallas Theological Seminary

Diploma, California Lutheran Bible School, 1960; BA, California State University at Los Angeles, 1964; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1968; ThD, 1973; DD, Rocky Mountain Bible College and Seminary, 2009.

In addition to his teaching responsibilities at Dallas Seminary, Dr. Allen ministers as a guest professor or lecturer in schools in North America and in numerous countries abroad. He preaches in churches across the country, speaks at Bible conferences, regularly leads study tours in Israel, Turkey, and Greece, and has been a biblical and theological consultant for Maranatha! Music. He has written a dozen books, was one of the senior editors for The New King James Version, Old Testament, and was the Old Testament editor for both The Nelson Study Bible (aka The NKJV Study Bible) and The Nelson's New Illustrated Bible Commentary. His ongoing research interests are in the worship of God and in studies of the grace of God in Hebrew Scripture.