From the Teaching this Morning

- In 1 Peter 2.1 we are called to rid ourselves of five things. What are they? How do you see those things showing up in your life or (no names please) in the lives of other Christians?
- What would the impact of the church be on the community around us if all of us truly lived that way?
- In the next two verses Peter describes what we should be desiring. As Christians, what should we be feasting on?
- How do you nourish your soul?
- What does it mean that we are a Spiritual house and a holy priesthood?
- How did Peter's description of the church change your perception of it?
