From the Teaching this Morning

- How can we know if our grief over the loss of loved ones is normal or like that of those who have no hope?
- How does hope differ from faith and love? How is it unique; what is its distinctive identity and role?
- How can we deepen our compassion for the lost?
- Why is it important to see that conversion is nothing less than God's imparting new life to dead sinners?
- Practically, how can we grow in the hope of Jesus coming again so that it affects our daily lives?
